PSYCHO

They said
check your brain Hey don't point
your finger at me
You said I'm insane
Now get the fuck
out of my way Tied up - fixtated Get a fucking knife in my hand Spellbound
Am I dead
What is fucking wrong in my head Choking
out the guts of misery Salvation
is what I find in my coffin
They said
check your brain
Hey don't point
your finger at me
You said I'm insane
Now get the fuck
out of my way Choking
out the guts of misery
Salvation
is what I find in my coffin Psycho forever
I'm a fucking Psycho forever

OVERFLOW

Watch your back I'm gonna use my fist to make sure you can't go on At your side I feel so fucking low
I stamp your face out Somewhere
The longer you persist in your cave the worse it gets The louder you keep on screaming the more you suffer Although you regret what you've done
I never forgive Hold your breath and bear the silence I am coming through your backdoor Now you're sorry that you can't remember your whole lot of stories You left a desaster
Why - Hey - You
Watch your back
I'm gonna use my fist...
Fuck your fake answers Fuck your fake laughter
Now you're sorry...
Why - Hey - You

YOU ARE FREE

Every night I'm awake and I think of your face Save your dishonest compassion
cause I hold all my tears
I grow out of this phase
and spit you out
You don't hurt me
anymore
But I wonder where you are now
I cannot believe you're gone
Save your dishonest compassion
cause I hold all my tears
and spit you out
You don't hurt me
anymore
I'm alone and desperate as you pretend our very end I still wonder where you are now
I cannot believe you're gone
You abused my faith
You're wearing my pain
like a crown of satisfaction
Save your dishonest compassion
cause I hold all my tears
and spit you out
You don't hurt me
anymore
You abused my faith

STAY TALL

Lay your wrath down
to rest and save your confidence Take your fate in your own hands
and find a way
Don't be afraid
You just live once Take your chances
Stay tall
You're more than a face in the crowd - don't let go...
Lay your wrath down
your confidence
and find a way
Don't be afraid
I know you're strong enough to leave your fear behind Wipe your tears aside Once you came in Your eyes went down to fight the demons in your mind...
I believe in you now step into the light Don't let them control cause it's your mind Don't let yourself go cause it's your life

IN MY DREAMS
Hey girl
you run through my blood
Before I wake up I'm dreaming of white sand and waves Come on now let's drive to reach our very own paradise Underneath the surface I am curious about the days to come You unfold the best I can ever be
I want you forever
You're grooving my world
You move me Hey girl
you run
through my blood...
All day
I embrace the beauty of going somewhere new
All I need is you You're grooving my world
You're moving me
It's you
I want

ROTATIONS
Chaos approaches
There ain't no escape
Chaos approaches
We are just powerless
We poison the ocean
Dry out the fountains Kill off the animals Billions of corpses
We burn down the forest Squeeze out resources Torture humanity Billions of corpses remain We lost our drive to focus on mother natures health Staring at the sun
It's too late for us
to expect a wonder
The damage is done for real - it's all over It's too late for us
to expect a wonder
There's no giving god
We are running out of time Realise
on mother natures health
We poison the ocean...
Staring at the sun
as we're melting The moment has come for the worlds last rotation.

PAATTHH

You're playing the bad boy
You think the time is ripe You feel kind of provoked when someone's not your style You go out hunting It's like a restraint Your rage is breaking the ground of every quite place
Make your mind up
It's time to redefine
the sordid rest of the road
Reset your damn attitude You pick the next victim
just to serve your ego Degrade a poor scapegoat
just to serve your ego
A chronic disorder is blackening your eyes You get kind of consumed by raw aggressions inside Where are the chances to get back in line You've been missing them all Your life is passing you by Make your mind up
You pick your next victim
just to serve your ego

LOCKED IN ISOLATION

There's nothing here for me
I build up walls
encage myself to be with me I forsake everything and peel my skin I get bored of the common life brainwashing
I'm ignored resocialised
brainwashing
My thoughts collide in my head Now I'm about to deny reality My bones can't take all this pressure
My heart is locked inside my chest
My bones can't take
all this pressure
My heart is locked
in isolation
I build up walls...
Useless attempts to integrate me I become just another crank
My bones can't take
all this pressure...
